Description

Desk - Louis XV-Style "Vitrine en bonheur du jour" with Marquetry Elegant console display cabinet with a Louis XV-style writing desk, crafted from precious wood inlaid with rich floral motifs. This refined piece stands out for its curved front with three glass panels, which beautifully showcase the displayed objects, as well as for the quality of its chiseled and gilded bronze fittings. The upper section opens via a central glass door flanked by two fixed side glass panels, revealing an interior lined with red velvet and featuring two display levels thanks to a glass shelf. The lower section includes six drawers: one large central drawer, two curved side drawers, and three small drawers along the base, providing practical and discreet storage space. An integrated sliding shelf rounds out the functionality of this
