Description

Art Nouveau-era bench in inlaid fruitwood. Charming two-seater period bench. Art Nouveau, crafted from fruitwood and richly adorned with inlaid floral motifs. Its slightly curved backrest, embellished with an elegant floral marquetry design, harmonizes beautifully with the two central posts, which are also inlaid with stylized motifs and oval medallions. The backrest with its slender vertical slats, the curved armrests, and the elegantly arched legs give this bench a light and refined silhouette, characteristic of French furniture from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The seat and backrest are upholstered in a recently reupholstered red fabric, accented by traditional tufting that highlights the quality of the cabinetry. The piece offers excellent comfort while serving as a charming decorative
