Description

Large wrought-iron candlestick from the early 20th century. It rests on a beautiful four-pronged base with broad volutes, embellished with four scrolls around the base of the shaft. The square shaft, marked by rings, supports a wide cup with a central spike and a retaining ring held in place by three uprights. It rests on a four-pronged base with widely flared legs, crafted in scrolls and finished with scroll-like motifs. The base of the shaft is also adorned with four small scrolls.
