

Lectura Azonis

5 500 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 225 mm

Height : 346 mm

Description

Lectura Azonis, Paris, 1581 Sébastien Nivelles (Sebastianus Nivellius) Contemporary binding in speckled parchment, with title label. 346 mm x 225 mm "Unexplored Treasures": The Origins of Law "The Rediscovery of Roman Law" Lectura Azonis This volume contains Azzone's lectures, compiled for the first nine books of the Codex by his student Alessandro de Sant'Egidio, while the commentaries on the last three books are attributed to Ugolino. For three centuries, all traces of his works seemed lost; then, in 1557, the lawyer Antoine Le Conte discovered a manuscript in a stable and had it reprinted in Paris in 1577. Ref.: Hidden Treasures of the Libraries of the University of Florence Azo of Bologna (also known as Azzo or Azolenus) (active between 1150 and 1230) was an influential Italian jurist

Dealer

Apple Boutique

generalist

Tel : +41 22 400 00 42

Mobile : +41 78 7654321

42 rue du Rhône

Genève 1204

and a member of the School of the Glossators.