Description

Carlo Giorgi for Bottega Gadda Striking three-leaf floor lamp in gilded, hammered brass Italy, 1970s. Spectacular Italian floor lamp in gilded brass, composed of three long, sinuous stems rising from a spherical base and topped by three large, naturalistic leaves crafted from repoussé and hammered brass. This model is part of the botanical designs developed by Carlo Giorgi for Bottega Gadda in Milan during the 1970s, including the famous Rabarbaro series. One of the leaves bears an "AG" monogram stamped into the brass. Signs of normal wear
