Description

"Ganyèmède" vase in satin-finish crystal by Marc Lalique (son of René Lalique), featuring an iconic design of intertwined female figures in an Art Deco style, set against a background of frosted foliage. A sculptural and luminous piece, signed "Lalique France" at the tip of the base. The contrast between the transparent crystal and the satin finish of the figures gives the vase a very elegant presence, typical of Lalique creations inspired by René Lalique's designs from the 1920s and 1930s.
