Description

Curved chest of drawers on all sides, finished in black lacquer with chinoiserie motifs - Louis XV style
An elegant, curved chest of drawers on all sides, richly adorned with a remarkable polychrome lacquer and gold decoration on a black background, featuring lively scenes in the Chinese style, including landscapes, architecture, figures, and vegetation. The side panels feature delicate decorative compositions depicting everyday objects, rendered in the same chinoiserie style. The front, which is particularly dynamic, opens to reveal two rows of drawers without a divider, accentuated by rich gilded bronze ornamentation. The bronze elements, arranged on the side panels, the front, and the lower section, elegantly complement the piece's generous curves. It rests on four arched legs topped with gilded bronze feet. The piece is topped by a beautiful Fleur de Pêcher marble top, molded with a corbin-beak profile, whose pinkish, veined hues contrast harmoniously with the black lacquer background. With its curved forms, refined decoration, and abundance of gilded ornamentation, this chest of drawers offers a particularly decorative interpretation of Louis XV-style furniture, in the spirit of the great French creations inspired by 18th-century chinoiserie.
