500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 13 cm

Height : 18 cm

Description

An elegant majolica albarello produced in Pesaro in the 18th century, featuring a refined polychrome floral decoration in shades of green, yellow, blue, and brown on a white background. The surface is adorned with a natural and harmonious botanical composition, typical of 18th-century Pesaro production, enhanced by a vibrant color palette. The classic shape, with a slightly tapered body and flared foot, is reminiscent of the ancient vessels used in apothecaries and pharmacies.
