Description

Auguste Maillard (1864-1944), French sculptor. Important bust of Marshal Ferdinand Foch (1851-1929) in military uniform, with his epaulets bearing the seven stars of a Marshal and his medals, such as the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor and various military medals. A rare version based on the bust created by Auguste Maillard for the École Polytechnique (from which Foch graduated); the original is on display at the École Polytechnique Museum (Mus'X) in Palaiseau. Signed "X51" on the reverse (X for the École Polytechnique and 51 probably for the Marshal's year of birth). Very good condition, slight patina from age, no chips or cracks.
