Description

Pair of large porcelain cache-pots with black ground in the Famille Rose taste, richly decorated in polychrome enamels with mandarin ducks swimming among blooming lotus ponds; circular stained and carved wooden stands with pierced feet. China, 20th century. H 31.5 cm, W 36 cm. Very good condition. These large cache-pots draw inspiration from the famous Chinese Famille Rose porcelains of the Qing dynasty, celebrating the classical theme of the lotus pond, a symbol of purity and conjugal harmony in Asian tradition. The pieces belong to the 20th-century reinterpretation of Far Eastern decorative arts, offering a vivid and elegant aesthetic through the striking contrast between the glossy black enamel ground and the polychrome lotus blossoms.
