Description

An elegant polychrome porcelain vase converted into a lamp and wired for electricity. It features a rich, Asian-inspired design, depicting a bird among flowers, foliage, and colorful patterns, set against a deep red background accented with green, pink, yellow, and blue motifs. The vase's generous shape, its luminous decoration, and its striking presence make it a particularly decorative lamp, ideal for a console table, a dresser, a side table, or in both classic and eclectic interiors. The vase comes fully assembled with its socket and electrical components. It can easily be paired with a lampshade chosen to match the style of your interior.
