Description

An elegant pair of two-light candlesticks in silver-plated metal by Victor Saglier, a Parisian silversmith from the second half of the 19th century. Each candlestick features two finely molded, curved arms extending from a central shaft adorned with plant motifs, topped by an elegant fruit-shaped knob. The circular base, with radiating gadroons, is accented by a foliage frieze. The candle holders feature a fluted design characteristic of the Neoclassical style. Victor Saglier hallmark: VS and a sailboat. France, Paris, late 19th century / circa 1880-1900. Dimensions of one candlestick: H. 22 cm without candle; H. 31 cm with the faux candle, without shade; W. approximately 23 cm.
