Description

Provenance: private collection, AntwerpDimensions: 100 x 80 cm"Market Scene" by Mavinga Ma Nkondo Ngwala (born in 1937) depicts a scene from everyday Congolese life. In the foreground, a woman in a white dress stands before a group of people gathered in a bustling market.The painting is distinguished by a free and expressive brushstroke, with warm and luminous colors. The contrasts between the white of the dress and the reds and blues of the background lend the scene a lively atmosphere.
Mavinga Ma Nkondo Ngwala is a leading Congolese painter, trained at the Academy of Fine Arts in Kinshasa and renowned for his scenes inspired by everyday Congolese life.
