Description

Very large lidded Chinese porcelain vase from the "Famille Rose" style, Qing Dynasty, late 19th-early 20th century. This beautiful vase is in excellent original condition, featuring rich polychrome decoration depicting a court scene before the emperor, animated by numerous figures and dignitaries dressed in traditional costumes, enhanced by friezes with geometric motifs. Note the richness of the glazes and the luster of the finish. A seal mark is present on the back, featuring the "Nei Fu" mark, with an interior disc. A very beautiful decorative and collectible piece. Shipping available to France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
