Description

Very unique, yet modern, this is a beautiful backpack featuring a trompe-l'oeil design of a tied kimono sash, the obi. Made of printed fabric in shades of purple, orange, and gray on a white background, with the brand name embossed in metallic relief on the front. Large back pocket with a zipper opening that reveals an interior lined with fabric printed with colorful flowers, another zippered pocket, and an orange leather pouch. Numbered P00110 on the inside, with the designer's logo also on an orange leather label. The straps are made of orange faux leather and are adjustable in length. A beautiful and unique piece from the world of haute couture. Number 110 from the Orient Extrême collection, Kenzo 2011. Excellent condition, no major flaws; note that the leather pouch has a small tear in the
