Description

Limoges porcelain vase, Haviland, "Princess Eugénie" model. The design for this collection was created by the artist Léonce Ribière for Empress Eugénie. Haviland has interpreted it in a tableware set of the same name, characterized by infinite delicacy. A wreath of violets evokes the empress's love of flowers and the shades of blue, mauve, and violet found in her gowns. The design's composition epitomizes the Second Empire style, while the swirling violet stems foreshadow Art Nouveau. Very good condition. Dated circa 1980-1990. Shipping: 14 euros within France, 25 euros within the EU, and 100 euros to the rest of the world.
