Description

Rectangular dining table with four black-lacquered legs. The tabletop is made of oak veneer with geometric patterns. At each end, there is an extension system that allows the table to be extended. The four legs feature a patinated gold-bronze finish. The table's trim is also black lacquered to match the legs. All of these elements are original. This table can also be used as a desk. It is in fair overall condition. This table is an original piece and has never been restored. Please note: a few minor signs of wear. The table's structure remains very stable and sturdy. Circa 1950. Dimensions: Height: 75 cm, Height under the rim: 63 cm, Width: 90 cm, Length (closed): 1.60 m, Length (open): 2.20 m.
