Description

Galerie Georgette Art Deco presents this beautiful trapezoidal-shaped living room cabinet made of sycamore and sycamore veneer. The piece is attributed to Victor Courtray (1896-1987). The piece features four fluted doors on the front, as well as three decorative niches running the length of the cabinet. The interior is equipped with two drawers and two shelves. The rope-patterned baseboard at the bottom of the piece enhances the elegance of this living room cabinet, which can serve as a bookcase, sideboard, or study cabinet. In very good condition. Come see it at our store in Toucy, 89130.
