Description

A very beautiful Satsuma ceramic candy dish, decorated with chrysanthemums, birds, and butterflies, on a green-and-red background; the base of the lid features a geometric, glazed gold design. Resting on three feet that rise up the sides and end in scrollwork. Beautiful fretel design of a chrysanthemum flower accompanied by three leaves. In good condition; however, there is some wear to the gilding, mainly on the feet. High-quality 19th-century Japanese work. Original label from the Asian goods store in Brussels: Wirth-Génis, Rue Royale. Weight: 818 g. Dimensions: Height: 18.5 cm, Diameter: 16.5 cm.
