Description

A beautiful and elegant two-section sideboard in the "gendarme's cap" style, opening with four doors; made of solid oak with deep moldings, its back--carefully paneled--is made of oak and fir, the shelves and bottom are fir, and the back of the lower section is oak. In very good condition; one lock needs to be replaced, and the interior shelves will be stripped. This two-section Louis XIV sideboard is much more beautiful in person than in photos. Ile-de-France. First half of the 18th century.
