Description

Art Nouveau bronze single-flower vase with floral decoration, circa 1900A true little masterpiece from the Art Nouveau period, this bronze vase is typical of that era, when nature reigned supreme in design, featuring organic elements of nature in its shape and in the bas-relief decorations on the body. In excellent condition, this vase has stood the test of time while retaining its original patina: an iridescent green fading to red at the top. It is a symbiosis of human artistic ingenuity and inspiration drawn from the perfect beauty of nature! Since the entire vase is made of bronze, it is stable and will continue to serve the purpose for which it was created: to hold your most beautiful flowers or a small bouquet as a single-flower vase, while continuing to delight the eyes of all who behold
