Serving set (two pieces) Coat of arms beneath the Viscount's crown

Master Silversmith Nicolas-Anselme BOURDET "Le Couvert" Silverware
Hallmark: Second Rooster, 1st Title (950) for Paris, 1809-1819. Very fine stew set, spoon and fork, filleted design, first quarter of the 19th century, by Nicolas-Anselme Bourdet, established in Paris, "Silversmith's Shop: Le Couvert, 10 rue Cocatrix and 17 rue du Marché aux fleurs in Paris starting on May 27, 1809. His widow, Jeanne Ameslant, resumed the business in 1821 by striking her own hallmark (J.A.V.B). The set is in excellent condition and of high density; the tips, spoon bowl, and fork tines are very well preserved, with no wear. The spatulas are engraved on the back with a coat of arms beneath a Viscount's crown, and on the rim
