Description

Each piece consists of a wooden frame with a top surface and a front drawer. The handles are made of bent plywood and integrated into the furniture's design. The tables are designed to be mounted on the wall, which saves floor space. The interior of the drawers is made of light-colored wood. The set features a simple and functional design, characteristic of postwar Italian design. In good overall condition, with signs of wear consistent with its age. Sold as a pair. W 50 x H 14 x D 28 cm
