Description

This classic French mirror, dating from around 1900, combines refined architectural lines with exquisitely delicate gilded ornamentation. Its frame combines warm, polished wood with richly carved gilded details, creating a balanced composition that is both majestic and inviting. Leaf motifs, subtle scrollwork, and a delicately aged patina reflect the craftsmanship typical of late 19th-century French decorative arts. Its generous proportions make it an impressive focal point in any interior. Its classic silhouette brings structure and elegance, while the gilded accents catch the light and add a touch of understated luxury. Placed in an entryway, above a console table, or incorporated into a living room, it offers a timeless decorative presence that harmonizes equally well with both traditional and
