and the former Czechoslovakia. In 1996, he was featured in the exhibition Vietnam: 30 Years of Painting from War to Peace in Paris. He has received various awards and honors: in 1990, he was a prize winner in the Ministry of Defense competition; in 1996, he was elected advisor to the Art and Culture Department at UNESCO in Hanoi. Highly prolific, he paints a wide variety of subjects, with a predilection for themes such as: mother and child, love, and armed defense. Notable works include: War Disabled; B-52 Bombing; The Festival; Citadel; these works feature arabesques and black outlines encircling blocks of color that enhance the expressiveness of the simplified silhouette-based drawing
