

19th Century Blue Velvet Jewelry Box With Gold Braid And Blue Velvet, France

960 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

A charming and rare French jewelry box dating from the late 19th-century, entirely covered on the exterior in rich royal blue velvet. The rectangular form is beautifully enhanced with finely patterned gold-colored passementerie braid, framing both the lid and the base. The gently padded panel on the top adds softness and elegance to the overall design. The hinged lid opens to reveal a luxurious blue satin-lined interior. Both the underside of the lid and the base are deeply button-tufted, creating an attractive cushioned effect traditionally associated with refined jewelry and presentation boxes. A satin-covered central divider separates the interior into two practical compartments, providing space for jewelry, watches, keepsakes, letters, or other precious personal objects. The box retains its
