Description

A table knife...With a carved walnut handle...Depicting Adam and Eve...With two greyhounds at their feet... And the original wrought-iron blade...Very simple with a flat tip...In good condition considering its age...The facial details are a bit worn...,But that's normal...!Otherwise, I think there's something missing at the tip on the wooden side...Probably a small knob or something similar...?I'm leaving it as-is... You can have the blade polished and the handle waxed if you'd like...It's just been dusted off...From the late 17th century...Around 1670-80...From the central Berry region...A beautiful piece...Weight... 46.59 grams
