

Round Tortoiseshell Box With A Pompon--a Token Of Friendship From The Late 18th Century / Early

170 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A circular tortoiseshell box with a pomponne mount, decorated with a silver and enamel "Gage d'Amitié" latticework set under glass. Date: late 18th century or very early 19th century. The ideal size for holding cufflinks. This object was made in part from materials derived from protected species (ivory, tortoiseshell) well before the 1947 Washington Convention, and is therefore not subject to its provisions. A beautiful object that bears witness to the refinement of high society at the turn of the 18th and 19th centuries. Good condition, minor chips in the tortoiseshell, no broken parts. Height: 2.3 cm Diameter: 6.4 cm
