Description

Neoclassical walnut console table from Piedmont, dating to the third quarter of the 18th century.

This elegant piece of furniture features floral carvings set within a scrollwork frame, enriching the band beneath the top. The small central apron is decorated with foliage carvings and a rosette, adding a further touch of refinement. The truncated pyramid-shaped legs feature fluted details and have been shortened at the base to maintain the piece's aesthetic balance. The purple Caletta marble top adds an element of luxury and sturdiness, complementing the timeless neoclassical design of this console table. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
