Description

A pair of 20th-century Italian armchairs crafted from walnut, featuring an elegant and enveloping design. The backrests are adorned with leaf-motif carvings and a central rosette at the top, lending a distinctive and refined touch. The curved legs culminate in delicate curls, adding an element of movement and dynamism to the overall design. The seat, backrest, and armrests are carefully padded, ensuring adequate comfort and support. A damask fabric upholstery in light shades further enhances these armchairs, making them ideal for spaces that call for a touch of class and tradition. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the furniture as fully as possible through the photos.
