Description

Walnut table crafted from antique wood, a distinctive example of 20th-century Italian craftsmanship. The tabletop consists of a single slab of walnut, ensuring stability and a natural, refined aesthetic. The turned legs, connected by a solid crossbar at the base, give the table lasting sturdiness. Both legs end in curved feet, adding a touch of elegance to the overall design. Thanks to the quality of its materials and attention to detail, this table is perfectly suited for both classic and modern settings, enriching any space with its historic charm and functionality. Product Condition: This product requires restoration and re-polishing due to its age and wear. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
