Description

Brass ceiling light with a white glass diffuser. This ceiling light is a decorative fixture designed to cast a soft, even light while defining the space. It combines a wide white glass diffuser with a brass finish, creating a warm and balanced atmosphere. This ceiling light stands out for its low profile, harmonious lines, and elegance. What makes this ceiling light unique is the subtle contrast between the smooth glass and the patinated brass finish, which adds character without weighing down the overall design.
