Description

A lovely gilded Louis XVI-style mantelpiece from the late 19th century. There is a signature on the upper panel: "A.HUBEAY"? This piece is particularly interesting due to its very elongated figures, the flowing drapery, and the stylized trees, which lend it a much more Symbolist, almost Art Nouveau feel than a simple neoclassical design. We can make out women or nymphs dancing in a wood, as well as a figure on the right who appears to be following an animal or another figure. This panel is very interesting due to its originality and this intriguing scene. There are a few signs of wear to note, limited to the gilding, but it is in very good overall condition. The depicted scene is in perfect condition. Dimensions: Height: 150 cm, Width: 80 cm. Please feel free to contact us by phone or
