Description

An elegant 19th-century French oil on canvas, signed by Gérard Buysen (19th century). The composition depicts a lavish bouquet of flowers arranged in a classic metal vase, with a few flowers delicately scattered across the mantelpiece. The bouquet combines luminous daisies, coral-toned poppies, and delicate roses in shades of pink. The arrangement stands out against a dark, subtly lit background, highlighting the colors and texture of the flowers. A refined and decorative work, characteristic of the 19th-century French floral still-life tradition. Artist: Gérard Buysen (19th century) Period: 19th century Technique: oil on canvas Canvas dimensions: 65 x 54 cm Dimensions in inches: approximately 25.6 x 21.3 inches Condition: very good overall original
