Description

An elegant antique Art Nouveau vase in silver-plated metal, dating from around 1900-1915. The vase features a rich floral relief design composed of stylized irises and foliage with soft, sinuous lines, characteristic of the naturalistic aesthetic of Art Nouveau. Its slender silhouette rests on an original triangular base, adorned with delicately curved legs. The craftsmanship of the decoration and the botanical forms reflect the care taken in the decorative arts of this period. A particularly decorative piece, it can be displayed on its own or adorned with fresh or dried flowers. Its elegant antique patina lends it an authentic charm and allows it to blend seamlessly into both classic and more contemporary interiors. Period: circa 1900-1915 Style: Art Nouveau Material:
