

Austro-hungarian Neo-renaissance Silver Set, 800 Silver - Circa 1880-1900

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Antique jewelry set in the Austro-Hungarian Neo-Renaissance style, consisting of a necklace with a large hinged pendant and a pair of matching earrings. Crafted from 800-fine silver and gold-plated silver, with alternating silver and gold sections on the various decorative elements. The set is adorned with faceted purple stones, green stones, and white pearl-like elements. The openwork design features scrolls, plant motifs, and Renaissance-inspired ornaments. Visible hallmarks: 800 and SxF. Probable date: circa 1880-1900. Total weight: 73 g. As the stones have not been gemologically tested, their exact nature remains to be confirmed. Sold with its antique case, shown in the photographs. Original condition with patina, wear on the gilding, and signs of use.
