Description

The planter features a richly detailed floral relief design, composed of irises and foliage with soft, sinuous lines--an iconic motif of the Art Nouveau style. It rests on an elegant raised base that gives it a striking presence and a sculptural silhouette. The repoussé decoration and organic forms reflect the meticulous attention to detail characteristic of the decorative arts of this period. Its lovely antique patina lends the piece an authentic and refined character. It can be used as a planter, a centerpiece, a decorative bowl, or simply displayed on its own as a decorative art object.
