

Hand-carved Italian Alabaster Tazza

400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Alabaster

Width : 33 cm

Height : 26 cm

Depth : 27 cm

Description

Hand-carved Italian alabaster tazzaA large, hand-carved alabaster centerpiece, crafted according to the centuries-old artistic tradition of Volterra, Tuscany--a city internationally renowned for itsin the field of alabaster craftsmanshipThe generously proportioned bowl features an elegant scalloped rim shaped like a seashell, enhanced by finely carved zoomorphic handles inspired by dolphins, while the base is adorned with scrolls of, creating a refined composition strongly influenced by the decorative repertoire of the Italian RenaissanceThe naturally veined alabaster, with its warm tones of ivory, honey, and gray, lends this piece remarkable depth and luminosity. Each piece is unique due to the natural character of the stone.Its elegant sculptural qualities make it an exceptional

Dealer

Vintitch

Modern furniture

Mobile : +32478803943

Groenstraat 29

Opwijk 1745

decorative object, ideal as a centerpiece, which blends perfectly into both classic and contemporary interiors. Although unsigned, the craftsmanship, style, and choice of material strongly suggest it was made in Volterra (Tuscany) during the mid-20th century (circa 1930-1950). 33 cm wide (from one ear to the other), 27 cm deep, and 26 cm tall. Total weight: 3.8 kg. An elegant and highly decorative example of traditional Italian alabaster craftsmanship.