

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Hussar Saber, Model 1777, Revolutionary Version From 1792-1802. Year Iv. France.

2 950 EUR

Signature : Révolution

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 98 cm

Width : /

Diameter : -

Height : -

Depth : -

Description

Brass frame, single-bar guard, long-tailed pommel. Frame hallmark featuring a "Rooster," partially worn away. Wooden handle wrapped in brown waxed calfskin. Curved blade with a raised back and hollow edges. Blade spine bears the manufacturer's name "Klingenthal." On the blade's fuller, the abbreviated, stylized inscription "Fran-se" (for "Française") appears; on the opposite side of the blade, "Rep-e" (for "République"). Lictor's hallmark indicating blade acceptance Width at the heel: 3.7 cm; total length: 81.5 cm. Sheath with two rings, meticulously crafted and characterized by its notched fittings. The scabbard is made of wood covered in brown waxed leather with two brass fittings, a brass scabbard ring, iron rings, and an iron scabbard tip. Total length of the weapon: 98 cm. Good

Dealer

Cartouche 12

Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux

Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac

Lunan 46100

condition. France, Revolution; Year IV. Note: A tear on the right side with a small patch of brown leather. A gash on the right side with a small patch of brown leather.