Description

An elegant circular pedestal table from the Napoleon III period, crafted from wood and richly hand-decorated. The tabletop, with a black background, features a magnificent hand-painted polychrome floral bouquet in the center. It is surrounded by a refined design of foliage, arabesques, and gilded motifs. The border is embellished with delicate mother-of-pearl inlays, creating subtle shimmer and highlighting the richness of the decoration. The wooden tripod base features the same painted and gilded decoration. The turned central shaft is also adorned with decorative motifs and gilded fillets. This beautiful piece is a testament to meticulous craftsmanship, combining painted wood, hand-painted polychrome decoration, gilding, and mother-of-pearl inlays. A particularly
