Description

A rare pair of large LXIV wrought-iron candlesticks. A beautiful, classic design featuring a long "S"-shaped arm supporting a cup with a pleated, gadrooned rim and a spike for securing the candle. Presented in their beautiful original condition, these large sconces will be perfect for complementing two mirrors, two shields, or two reflector plates from the same period. They can also be displayed as is, mounted on the wall using two simple iron rings of the corresponding diameter (the diameter of the mounting pin is 1 cm). French or Italian craftsmanship dating from the late 17th century / early 18th century. Note: Shipping to France is available via Colissimo with tracking: 30 euros. Shipping to other destinations available upon request.
