Description

A walnut table dating from the mid-19th century, featuring a round top adorned with maple inlays that continue onto the band below. The four curved legs feature delicate floral and foliage carvings at the top, while the bases are finished with a decorative scroll that conveys an elegant stylistic harmony. Ideal for enhancing any space with a touch of historic refinement. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
