Description

A Barocchetto-style display cabinet, crafted from carved, lacquered, and gilded wood, dating from late 19th-century Italy. The display cabinet, featuring glass panels on the front and curved sides, is equipped with side doors that open to reveal a refined display space. The legs, also curved, culminate in scroll-shaped feet, lending the structure a classic and sinuous elegance. The lower shelf features a mirrored front panel that adds depth and brightness, while the surface is decorated with floral and foliage carvings and gilded volutes on a green lacquer background. This piece is a perfect example of Italian craftsmanship from that era, enriching any setting with its historical and artistic charm. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to
