

Early Medieval Belt Fitting In The Shape Of An Eagle Or Raven, Circa The 7th Century

185 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 30 m.m.

Height : 25 m.m.

Description

An interesting Merovingian or Frankish belt buckle depicting an eagle or a raven. It retains traces of pigment. Such a bird was believed to bestow protection upon the wearer. Height: 25 mm Width: 30 mm Period: France, circa 7th century Condition: as shown, in good condition with traces of enamel or pigment.

Dealer

Wonders are Collectible

Sculptures & Works of Art

Mobile : 00 31 653179741

Utrecht 3701EV