Description

Large Regency-era armchair, 18th century, made of walnut with a beautiful antique patina. A spacious and comfortable design with a high, gently curved backrest. It rests on four arched legs joined by a simply molded apron. The upholstered armrests end in sculpted, curved walnut consoles of particularly elegant design. The armchair is fully upholstered in an antique 18th-century fabric from the Prella collection, featuring foliage and floral motifs in shades of red and gold. The upholstery is accented with brass tacks.
