Description

Modern Italian Murano glass chandelier with 8 tiers, in clear nickel, featuring an abstract design. The spectacular dimensions and large abstract prisms of this glass work of art create a dazzling cascade of light and reflections, with each element carefully arranged and offset from the next row to enhance depth and visual rhythm. An elegant nickel frame anchors the design and provides a sleek, architectural contrast to the fluid, artistic character of the glass. The oval glass elements measure 40 x 18 cm; their surface is curved, while their backs are flat. Long strands of glass--also known as "spaghetti strands"--are arranged in an abstract pattern, with a loop at the top and bottom. These glass formations define the design of this conical "spaghetti" chandelier. Carlo Nason created this
