Description

A very elegant curtain made from a superb fabric blending silk and linen, of remarkable quality and with excellent drape. The fabric features a refined design with irregular vertical stripes, enhanced by a delicate damask-style floral and botanical pattern. The color palette, particularly soft and refined, is based on shades of coral and beige, accented with bluish gray, salmon, powder pink, and subtle taupe tones. The colors appear marbled and weathered, giving the fabric exceptional depth and luminosity. Depending on the lighting, certain shades appear more or less intense, revealing the full richness of the weave. The curtain is lined with high-quality craftsmanship and beautiful, even pleats at the top, creating an elegant look and a lovely fullness. Curtain dimensions: 246 cm x 197 cm Two matching pairs
