Description

Elevate the prestige of your spaces with a work that celebrates rebirth: an absolute masterpiece in which painterly skill meets poetic symbolism. In this exquisite oil painting on wood, Maestro Giovagnoli captures the very essence of the season. The focal point is a pair of delicate hands that adorn the work with a wedding ring--a nod to spring weddings--flanked by a playful polka-dot dress and an elegant goblet. The composition is enriched by an artichoke, apricots, medlars, and citrus fruits--elements that dance together to symbolize the sweetness of spring. Created in the early 1950s in the Republic of San Marino (H 90, W 56), this piece boasts masterful craftsmanship, a testament to the artistic excellence of the era.
