This work has been restored by a professional & accurate restaurer. This engraving is approximately 200 years old. It is in good condition considering its age.Our restorer carefully cleaned it to remove the marks and traces of time. The engraving had several small tears: two in the lower right area of the image, and one in the white margin at the bottom left. These tears have been carefully restored. The restorations are discreet and, once the engraving is mounted with a mat and framed, they will become virtually imperceptible.We invite you to carefully examine the photographs, which form
