Description

Wine decanter / whiskey decanter in cut glass, Manufacture du Creusot, Empire and Restoration periods, early 19th century, circa 1810-1820. An elegant model, bell-shaped, very finely cut with great precision using diamond-point engraving, adorned with a cartouche free of any monogram. Our decanter is in good overall condition; it is slightly dulled on the inside, though this is not visible when it is filled with liquid. (Our decanter was made 200 years ago.) There is a small surface chip on the underside. Height: 34.4 cm (27 cm without stopper)
